

THE FACES OF SAILING

Steve Colgate, an Olympian and America's Cup sailor, and his wife Doris Colgate run Offshore Sailing School, teaching more than 160,000 adults and families how to sail, race and cruise on big sailboats and manage big power yachts. The school's instructors teach every level of US Sailing certification courses, from beginner to advanced, at vacation destinations on Captiva Island, Key West and St. Petersburg, Florida, and Scrub Island and Tortola in the British Virgin Islands.
